

Local and Personal

Hon. J. C. Martin of Asheville was here on Tuesday on legal business.

Rev. R. V. Miller of this city will preach at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

Daughter number eight has arrived at the home of State Senator T. B. Allen. And still he smiles.

Mr. Frank Smith of Fletcher, was a visitor to Hendersonville yesterday on business.

Miss Bessie Powell has gone to Columbia where she was called on account of the illness of a relative.

G. M. Glasener has returned from Boston and New York where he has been for the past two weeks buying goods.

Attention is directed to interesting announcement concerning "Life and Speeches of Governor Aycock" appearing elsewhere in this issue.

Prof. I. B. Brown of Charleston was in the city this week looking after the interests of the Laurel Park Summer school which will convene here about June 1st.

Call and see sample of the Aycock book the office offers with this paper for $2.00. The book itself sells for $1.50 and the paper, time basis, is same. Make advantage of a bargain.

Chief of Police J. W. McCaskey has been confined to his home for the past three weeks with a severe case of grip. His friends were glad to see him out again last Monday, back on his beat.

Rev. C. King, formerly of this place, but now of Greenville, S. C., has returned to his old home on Willow road and will be glad to meet his old friends. He will also conduct a shoe repair shop at his home, which business he has been in for a number of years.

Mr. M. L. Shipman, Commissioner of Labor and Printing, was here yesterday to make final settlement with the Superior court clerk as administrator of the Harriet B. Kinch estate. He left for Raleigh on the one o'clock train.

The "Life and Speeches of C. B. Aycock, a handsome bound book, is being offered to those paying back subscriptions and 2.00 for a year in advance. The book itself sells for $1.50; this paper, time basis, is $1.50, both can be had for $2.00 if remittance is made by April 4th.

Squire C. Oates was here on Tuesday from Bear Wallow. He says the Bat Cave folks are pleased over the prospects of an early completion by the State of the highway through Hickory Nut Gap. Mr. Oates thinks the bill providing for the construction of this highway by the State is one of the most meritorious passed at the recent session of the General Assembly.

Mr. Valliant Dead.

Mr. Jno. W. Valliant of this city passed away at his home on fifth avenue last Sunday morning at eight o'clock. The remains were accompanied to his former home, St. Louis, Mo., by his wife, mother, brother and cousin, Miss Worthington, the latter three having come to the bedside of their loved one from St. Louis last Friday. Mr. Valliant had suffered of a form of paralysis for a number of years, and while he had not been altogether as well as usual for the past few weeks, his death came rather unexpected and thought to have been hastened by the death of his father the Hon. Le Roy B. Valliant, chief justice of the Supreme court of Missouri, who died March 3d, at his old home in Greenville, Miss. Mr. John W. Valliant was an unusually brilliant man, and all who knew him held him in the highest esteem. The sympathy of the friends and community are extended to the grief stricken wife and relatives.

Hoopers Creek to the Front.

Enough signers of petitions to issue $20,000 in bonds for better roads is the result of a campaign just closed in Hoopers Creek township. The petitioners will ask the county commissioners at once to allow them this money payable by Hoopers creek, and to be spent on roads in that township. This is the beginning of a great tidal wave of good road sentiment in this county, and many of the other township will follow suit.

The local merchants are increasing their parcel post business every day. The patrons in the county, especially during the rainy season, when the roads in many parts of the county were too bad to travel with ease, have taken advantage of the new law and ordered goods by mail.

If your subscription is paid to first of this year send or bring $2.00 and get the "Life and Speeches" of ex-Governor Aycock and the paper for 1913. Subscription price of the book is $1.50 and it ought to be in every North Carolina home library and school. This offer expires on night of April 4th.

LEGISLATIVE RECORDS

Mr. Phillips of Graham, 15; Mr. Ray of Macon, 19; Mr. McClure of Clay, 4; Mr. Martin of Cherokee, 20; Mr. Wike of Jackson, 11; Mr. Noland of Haywood, 17; Mr. Deaver of Transylvania, 21; Mr. Bolch of Polk, 13; Mr. Patton of Henderson, 11; Mr. Coffield of Rutherford, 12; Mr. Mashburn of McDowell, 14; Mr. Williams of Buncombe, 19; Mr. Roberts of Buncombe, 24.

There was some political legislation in the west. Senator Hannah took pleasure in killing several of the bills introduced by Representative Ferguson and Representative Deaver. To him the bills had something of a republican taste as the authors of the bills were republicans. They treated some of his bills with the same kind consideration. Representative Mashburn had a little trouble also as the senators representing McDowell county did not like the flavor of some of his bills. The bill providing for a bond issue in Old Fort township for the purpose of building the State Central High way caused considerable trouble, attention to which was called in last week's issue of the Democrat. The matter was compromised by empowering the Governor to appoint the road commissioners of the township.

Culowhee Directors.
Following is the list of the directors for the Culowhee Normal and Industrial School as appointed by the Legislature:

D. D. Davis, W. D. Wike, Walter E. Moore, J. C. Martin, D. R. Noland, for six years; Thomas A. Cox, Felix H. Alley, T. C. Henderson, J. D. Coward, for four years; C. C. Cowan, J. Robert Long, A. L. Martin, J. P. Patton, M. D. Billings, for a term of two years.

On Board of Education.
The omnibus bill containing the names of the new members of the boards of education for the western counties is as follows, the appointment being for a term of six years.

J. A. Chambers, Clay county; W. M. Rogers, Graham; J. M. Richardson, Cherokee; J. W. Burnett, Swain; T. L. Jameson, Jackson; J. C. Sales, Henderson; Edwin Poore, Transylvania; E. McQueen Salley, Polk; D. M. Cagle, Haywood; Norman L. Barnard, Macon; Joe C. Conley, McDowell.

The appointees are directed to qualify before the clerk of the Superior court on the first Monday in July.

Mr. Moore to Preach at Edneyville.
Rev. Jno. W. Moore former Pastor of M. E. church of Hendersonville will preach at Edneyville church on the fourth Sunday of this month at eleven o'clock, this service will be in memory of Mr. Theodore Lyda.

The Aid Society of the Methodist Church met and were most pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. S. S. Hodges on Tuesday afternoon. The ladies were quite busy making fancy articles for the Bazaar which will be Saturday March 22. A delicious ice course was served by two very charming young ladies.

There Always Are Imitators.

In all the world and over all the world there have and will be imitators.

We have had imitation stuff placed on the shelves along with our goods—but the imitation did not imitate enough to create a sale. Gowan's Preparation stands alone. It is without a peer as an external remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Pneumonia and all ailments where inflammation is the seat of the disease. Being external it is safe and cannot leave a drug habit. Being put up in three sizes it is within the reach of all classes of people and therefore there is no excuse to be without a bottle in the home. Thousands of testimonials; thousands of people talking about the virtues of this wonderful preparation; the fact that a trial bottle convinces or your money is refunded makes Gowan's pre-eminently the great household stand by for all cases of inflammation. If you do not know about its sterling qualities ask your neighbor.

We know your neighbor knows if you do not. It is hard to find a home these days where Gowan's is not a standard remedy. That accounts for our great success. When a mother tells her neighbor to buy it and to not to be without it, and recites how she saved her baby's life or her own life—then you know. Gowan's stands supreme and new friends are being made every day. All druggists now sell this wonderful remedy—insist on getting Gowan's.—Adv.

Perhaps in the far off Hesperian—far beyond the ecliptic—or way out in the infinity of space beyond the knowledge of the peoples on earth; there may be a civilization developed upon a world vastly superior to our little planet, where the insurance business is conducted upon a grander and more gigantic scale than anything known to our little sphere. If so, there may be somewhere in the immensity of space, a world where they have insurance companies larger and better than those we represent.
